

Cleveland Heights Christian Church Ministry with Karen Families

Cleveland Heights Christian Church has had an active ministry with over a dozen Karen Families (refugees from Burma) since Spring 2008. This began with the church sponsoring one family through Journeys End. Our sponsored family has invited friends until we now have nearly fifty Karen adults and children in church on Sunday morning.

To help support this ministry which includes transporting the families to and from church each Sunday we are sponsoring a dinner prepared by the Karen families. Their Karen cuisine (much like Thai food) will be served either mild or spicy.

This event will be an opportunity for you to learn more about the Karen culture as it will include music, dancing and Karen history in addition to the dinner.

It will be held at Cleveland Heights Christian Church on Saturday October 24th from 5 to 7PM
